"We've Been Waiting for You"

Nothing passes more quickly than the first few weeks of a newborn's life. Capture those fleeting moments before they are gone! Book your newborn session during the first four weeks of your child's life. For the best results, consider an all-black outfit or jeans for yourself. Your new baby will be photographed in the most formal attire...skin!

The session can be done with natural light in your home. FDG may add some simple portable studio lighting if necessary. To make you and your baby comfortable, we use your home or the location of your choice as the backdrop for the portraits; we also supply a portable studio with several backdrops and photo props. Sessions usually last anywhere from 2 to 3 hours, Ed or Sandy will never hurry you along; we take all the time needed to be sure that we get a good sampling of portraits for you to choose from, we understand that newborns and young babies often need comforting, soothing or nursing during a session.

Our Signature Collections Newborn Photography is especially designed to preserve the memories of your tiny new one - and all the kissable parts. We cover your announcement needs from beginning to end with a myriad of unique choices.

Nothing is sweeter than your newborn baby ... consult with FDG and book your session today, we make it easy for you!
