This is one of our client's favorite packages. The Queen Palm Photography Package is designed for our more discerning wedding couples that want thorough coverage of their most important day of their lives.

Ed and Sandy take time to get to know the Bride and Groom, we then offer ideas and techniques that help you tell the story of this special time of your life. FDG blends the photographic artistry and creativity of earlier times with today's technology advancements to a distinctive style and new approach to wedding photography.

FDG works together with you in a relaxed fashion with politeness and a refreshing professionalism. Feel "assured" that you won't have obtrusive photographers near you, just enjoy your special day; later enjoy your pictures and your wedding book with family and friends.

FDG provides professional Profoto™ studio lighting, providing naturally reflected or soft diffused lighting. We shape the light and insure distinctive images, perfectly exposed bringing out the best in colors and skin tones. FDG ensures that there is appropriate time allocated for formal family & friends group photographs, formal bridal photography, as well as full photo coverage of both the ceremony and the reception.
